

Dijon, the Capital of Burgundy, the ideal destination for your next events

Dijon, the capital of Burgundy, enjoys an ideal geographical location at the heart of Europe. Easily accessible, the city is just 1.5 hours from Paris and Lyon, and 2 hours from Strasbourg, Zurich, and Lausanne. It is well connected to the airports of Bâle-Mulhouse, Strasbourg, Paris Charles de Gaulle, and Lyon Saint Exupéry. Upon arrival at the station, you are immediately in the city center, with direct access to two tram lines and a pedestrianized area where everything is within walking distance.

Dijon offers a range of venues for all types of events, including:

- the prestigious Palais des Congrès,
- several conference centers,
- and unique locations for memorable gatherings.

With a growing hotel capacity, Dijon offers nearly 4,800 rooms.

A dynamic city, it hosts industries of excellence such as hydrogen, agrotech, and the vehicles of the future. Committed to energy transition, Dijon prioritizes sustainable mobility and environmental development.
Classified as a UNESCO World Heritage site, Dijon is also the starting point for the famous Route des Grands Crus.

The International City of Gastronomy and Wine, a true symbol of French know-how, features :

- restaurants,
- shops,
- meeting rooms,
- and prestigious wine cellars,

Making Dijon a one-of-a-kind destination for events.

To enhance team spirit, the city offers a variety of activities:

- gourmet challenges,
- bike rides,
- team-building events,
- and wine tastings.

Lastly, its Convention Bureau provides full support in organizing your event, ensuring its success.

To learn more about Dijon, we invite you to read the Boardroom article

Contact :

Patrick GENIE / Samir EL MAJID JANIN-MANIFICAT
DIJON BOURGOGNE TOURISME & CONGRES
Responsable Bureau des Congrès / Chargé de développement tourisme d'affaires
Patrick : +33 (0)7 88 87 05 27 / Samir : +33 (0)6 80 99 87 89
pgenie@otdijon.com / selmajid@otdijon.com
News from the Convention Bureau - Dijon Bourgogne Tourisme & Congrès